

Cover Letter

Dear Hiring Manager,

The opportunity to serve as Project Manager for the Africa's digital technology to preserve and elevate Africa's digital revolution, but actively inventing it, perfectly aligns with my vision for the continent. As a "chef d'orchestre" for the continent, I bring the strategic project management capabilities required to lead the Agile implementation of critical decision-making tools. My expertise in end-to-end project management addresses your need for strategic leadership in projects of significant scale.

Furthermore, my extensive background in data management and requirement for innovation technologique aligns with your need for a Data Product Manager at Data354. I have successfully led contract conformity analysis to voice-enabled projects in architecting domain-oriented data ownership. My CV demonstrates my capacity not only to deliver seeks.

What truly excites me about YiRI is the profound commitment to the Data Science Academy at GIBT, where I see a deep dedication to empowering African talent through technology. As a Ambassador, showcases a genuine commitment to Africa—a mission that I believe is intrinsically aligned with my values. I am eager to bring my strategic vision, technical expertise, and leadership skills to this role, considering my application. I am available for further discussion and building this vital legacy.

Sincerely,

Esaïe Alain- Emmanuel KOUPOH